

Tomatoes

Nearly a century ago, the Esformes & Heller families began their journey in fresh produce. Now in their fourth generation of family leadership, Sunripe Certified Brands has been serving customers with an extensive line of tomato varieties.

Sunripe Certified Brands is located in Palmetto, Florida.

- Georgia is a top producer of fresh market tomatoes.
- Tomatoes are the second most consumed vegetable in the U.S. behind potatoes.
- Botanically, the tomato is a fruit, but in cooking it is considered a vegetable.
- The average American consumes around 80 pounds of tomatoes a year!

★ Tomatoes are an excellent source of vitamin A!
